WEEK 7

TIME CAPSULE CHALLENGE

Create a Covid-19 Time Capsule to look back on!

1. My 2020 Covid-19 Time Capsule

We are all living through history right now, so it would be a great idea to create a time capsule of memories that you and your family can look back on in years to come.

Fill in these pages for your future self to look back on. Here are some ideas of things to include:

- Photos from this time
- A diary of your days
- Newspaper clippings
- Artwork you have created
- Photos or drawings of your friends, family and pets
- Special memories

Draw a picture of the people you are social distancing with here:

What date did you start isolation?

What date did you end isolation?

2.
3.

4. My community

Draw a picture of where you are living during this time:

How are you keeping in touch with your friends and family?

Who are you looking forward to seeing when this is all over?

What will you do together?

What are you doing to help feel connected and show your support of other people during this time? (Drawing rainbows in windows, clapping for carers, etc.)

5. Staying safe at home

It's important to remember that you are not 'stuck' at home, you are staying 'safe' at home!

And it's important to keep both your minds and bodies active during this time.

Draw pictures or list the things you have been doing to keep busy and active:

1.
2.
3.

What are you most thankful for?

What are your hopes for the future?

What do you hope you will never forget about this time?

9. Letter to my future self

When all of this is over, or in years to come, it will be special to look back at your time capsule and remember the unique time you lived through.

Here is your chance to tell yourself all about it, share memories you don't want to forget, or offer advice you'd like to take in the future.
